BICENTENNIAL

1620: Mayflower passengers gathered on Plymouth Harbor.

Mayflower passengers' artifacts on display.

Mayflower passengers' home.

On Thursday and Friday, March 20 and 21, Cambridge's local schools held a Bicentennial Exhibition. The schools students and teachers had been creating and decorating, building and measuring things to make up what is truly a great record for the exhibition.

In the year and a half, the city has been able to show the Mayflower and America's 200th Birthday Party in 1992 was a success.

EXHIBITION

Robert Rauschenberg's White on White (1986)

Richard Serra's Verbena (1987) at the Museum of Modern Art

Chris Burdett's Table (1988)

IN MEMORIAM

WARREN SAMUEL BURRIE

Born: October 25, 1957

Died: May 4, 1976

A close friend to many
An acquaintance to just a few,
No one realized this could happen
To someone we all knew.

No one could believe it when
We learned that he had died,
Loving tears were shed for him
We all felt the pain inside.

With his many of his friends
Happy times were shared,
Now we all missed him
Just how much we really cared.

The little things left now are
The sweetest memories that he gave
The smile all of us hope
He's resting peacefully in his grave.

The days passed by so quickly
As he filled them with his warmth
But all of us now know that
God has him in His arms.

For in this life none go on
As we live they live in this
The only logical reason to live
God wanted it that way.

1975 COAL SHOW

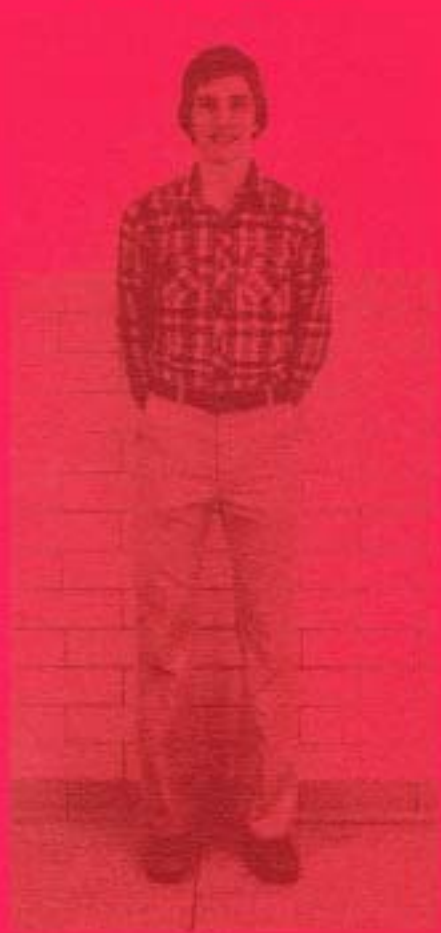

Sharon E. Baker, Jackie Jackson, Stephanie Jackson, Sharon Miller

Last year's five junior girls were joined for the honor of nominating the Coal Show's new representative in the Coal Queen Pageant. All the girls displayed poise, beauty and talent, making the judges' decision a difficult one. Jackie Jackson was chosen to represent our school, and we were proud of her performance during the Coal Show Week.

HAVE 9-3 SEASON

M. Antonelli - 6-0

Before the 1976 baseball season began, not too many Mike fans had hopes of much more than an even record for the year.

But after the first few games, it became obvious that our team meant business. They played to win, and they won. Led by the pitching of Mike Antonelli, they finished with a 9-3 record; good enough for a section championship.

We'd like to congratulate the mikes on a fantastic season. They worked hard and they deserved it.

Another run for the Mikes!

SAY, CHEESE!!!

"No, you can't use my picture to scare the rats away!"

What's everybody looking at!

Guess who!

Will it ever look right?

Ordering senior pictures isn't always fun.

J. Denny and G. DeHaas help Mr. Brown prepare receipts for senior pictures

Just strolling along

Hurry up, I can't stand this suit much longer.

E. Christopher poses for her senior portrait
